The Speakership.

The "signs of the times" indicate that the long protracted contest for the Speakership will be brought to a close during the present week. Indeed, it is not improbable that an election will be effected to-day, or to-morrow. The struggle has been an exciting and characteristic one. The Democrats have voted alternately for Northern Doughfaces, Southern Disunionists and prominent Know Nothings; beating all round the bush for a candidate, and finally, abandoning their party and principles, going over in a body to the South Americans. The coalition failed, however, of success, and only served to show the desperate straits to which Sham Democracy is reduced.

The Republicans, on the other hand, have voted steadily and unflinchingly for their first choice, Mr. Sherman; averring, at the same time, their readiness, whenever more votes could be concentrated upon any other candidate, to withdraw Mr. Sherman and unite upon the new man. Mr. Sherman himself has been ready to give way, at any moment; and the proceedings of Friday seem to indicate that the time has arrived when the substitution of Mr. Pennington, or Mr. Corwin, for Mr. Sherman, will enable the Republicans to elect their Speaker and organize the House.

From Madison.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Madison, Friday, Jan. 27.

The Supreme Court, after a laborious session, adjourned yesterday until Tuesday, the 7th of February, when they will take up the cases from the Ninth Circuit. Much interest begins to be manifested, in the Seventh Circuit, in regard to the Judicial Election which comes off next April. The present incumbent, Judge Cate, is a gentleman of pleasant address and moderate abilities, but a strong partisan. Nevertheless he relies upon Republican support and proposes to run, as an independent candidate, in order to secure it.—There is no objection to such a course, provided the electors in the Circuit are not deceived by false pretences. In this instance, however, I am assured that in some quarters of the Circuit Judge Cate is represented as sympathizing with the Republicans in their political views and actions, while in others Judge Alban, who is talked of as his competitor, is personally and unjustly assailed. I have known Judge Alban, for some years, and believe him to be a gentleman of probity, intelligence and sound principles.

In the Senate, this morning, after the usual routine business, the amendments to the Assessment Law were taken up, discussed, and ordered to a third reading. The bill is in good shape, and will pass the Senate without doubt; but its fate in the Assembly is more problematical. The Assembly did a good morning's work. No time was lost in debate, and before 12 o'clock the Speaker's desk was cleared, and the House adjourned for want of something to do. Thus far, more business has been transacted during the early part of the session than in any previous year. It is to be hoped that the Legislature will persevere to the end in their industrious habits.

Among the resolutions offered in the Assembly to-day was one from Mr. Horn, for a Select Committee to investigate the affairs of the State University, and report whether it would not be advisable to donate this institution to the city of Madison, on condition they pay its outstanding debts. The proposal will hardly find favor with the Legislature. The University is no tax upon the Treasury, being supported out of a fund created and set apart for the purpose. Very recently an accomplished gentleman, who has had ample experience in the business of education, has been placed at its head. Strong hopes are expressed by the friends of the institution that Chancellor Barnard will be able to make it effective for great good. He should at least be allowed the opportunity of showing what he can do.

Mr. Goodwin, from the Select Committee on the subject, made a brief and conclusive report to-day, against the proposition to cut down the charges for publishing lists of tax sales, legal notices, &c. The printers of the State may rest assured that the Legislature will deal fairly by them and adopt the recommendations of the Committee.

The appropriate Committees have been busy this week, and will be during the next, in visiting the different State Institutions at Janesville, Delavan, Waukesha, Waupun and Madison; so as to enable them to report their respective conditions and wants to the Legislature. Large demands are annually made upon the State for the several public charities and the State Prison; and care should be taken, especially in these times, that the appropriations are not extravagant. Much fault is found with the heavy expenditure already incurred for the Lunatic Asylum, as compared with the small results thus far accomplished. The site is a very fine one, the edifice costly, substantial and handsome; but, as yet, there is only provision for thirty or forty patients, when there should have been accommodations for one hundred.

Bayard Taylor arrived here this afternoon. He lectures to-night, and will undoubtedly have a full house to hear him. He was much gratified with his cordial reception in Milwaukee, and with the brilliant audience that greeted him in Albany Hall.

The weather continues bright, seasonable and genial; but the farmers mourn over the loss of the snow. Business of all kinds, outside of the Capitol, is unusually dull here this winter. The principal hotels, however, are full and seem to be doing well.

R. K.

Speeches of Abe Lincoln.—The speeches delivered by Hon. Abe Lincoln of Ill., during the celebrated debate with Douglas, and addresses delivered elsewhere, are to be collected and published in book form by Messrs. Follet, Foster & Co. The volume will contain 300 pages and will be ready for delivery by the first of March.

Mr. Upton, of the Chicago Journal, has received the silver medal offered by the National Fair for the best report. The Journal says it is somewhat smaller than a dinner plate, heavy and finely engraved.

Opening of the Brackett House, Adrian, Mich.—The Brackett House, Adrian, Michigan, was formally opened on the 18th inst. with a very brilliant festival; at which were present numerous prominent citizens of Detroit, Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland, Milwaukee and Rochester. The supper was spoken of as a grand affair. After the feast, speeches were made by prominent men of the city, among whom was Addison J. Comstock, Esq., the founder of the city. In the course of his remarks he stated the manner in which he arrived on the ground where Adrian now stands, with his ox team with which he came all the way from Lockport, New York, through the State of Ohio, accompanied by a few friends, having, in the Fall previous, 1825, here purchased 640 acres of land. The spot where the Brackett House now stands, was then occupied by a mound, beneath which reposed the remains of some noted sachem of the Pottawotamie tribe, as indicated by the mound erected to his memory, now passed away with the red men, and succeeded by the improvements of the "pale faces."

The citizens gave a grand ball at Odd Fellows Hall in connection with the festival, which was graced by the presence of all the beauty and fashion of the city who delight in tripping the light fantastic toe.

Col. Brackett, the proprietor of the house, is a wealthy and enterprising citizen of Rochester, N. Y. The landlord of the Brackett House, D. A. Woodbury, Esq., is a whole-souled and hospitable gentleman, of the "good old stock," who it is well known, can keep a hotel, second to none.

The citizens of Adrian have good reason to be proud of this splendid architectural addition to their delightful inland city, as it is an "institution" they have long needed.

We bespeak for the Brackett House a liberal patronage from the traveling public.

Pomeroy has left the State, having received a call from one of the leading N. Y. journals.—Oxford Express.

We have seen the above piece of information floating about for some time, and probably it would be as well (seeing Brick is not here to do it himself) to correct it. The last intelligence from that worthy, described him as setting type at Washington City, as a sort of recreation while he waited for Larrabee to get him something better.

Fire in Chicago.—The elegant residence of Jonathan Burr, Esq., on Michigan Avenue, near Peck Court, was partially consumed by fire on Friday morning. Loss about $1,500, which is fully covered by insurance.

Death from Chloroform.

The North British Mail contains the following particulars of the death of Dr. Renwick:

A most painful excitement was produced in Alloa recently, on its becoming known that Dr. Renwick had died during the forenoon, while under the influence of chloroform. It appears that the deceased had been suffering lately from the nail of his great toe having grown into the flesh, and on Saturday afternoon he had spoken to one of his professional brethren, Dr. Duncanson, to come on the forenoon of the following day and cut away the nail. Being an operation of a somewhat painful nature, he stated that it was his intention to take chloroform, whereupon Dr. Duncanson suggested that another medical man should be called in to assist; but this he objected to.

On Sabbath morning, therefore, Dr. Duncanson attended, and found his friend in excellent spirits, and still resolved to take chloroform, to which course he made no further objections, having administered it to him on a former occasion without any bad results. Having made some observations as to how he wished the operation to be performed, and charged the operator to be sure not to begin until he was perfectly insensible, a little of the chloroform was poured upon a towel, and he held it to his mouth with his own hands. After a while, as it did not seem to be taking any effect, he asked for some more; which Dr. Duncanson at first declined to give; but after a while, finding that no effect was being produced, some more was applied. Observing that he was endeavoring to hasten its effect by strained inspirations, he was asked to breathe naturally, which he did.

As it still, however, seemed to be having no effect, another small quantity, at his own request, was applied to the towel, which, after a short time, produced insensibility; and his pulse being found full and regular, the operation, which did not occupy more than a minute or two, was successfully performed. He still remained under the influence of the anæsthetic, but his breathing was regular, and all was considered right. Some cold water was then thrown on his face to arouse him; but this not having the desired effect other measures were resorted to, but with a like unfortunate result; and when, after a few minutes, his breathing became less frequent and more labored, and the appearance of his countenance began to change, and his pulse had become nearly imperceptible, serious alarm was felt. Artificial respiration by modern method was resorted to, and in this manner breathing was kept up for nearly half an hour, but his spirit had passed away. Dr. Renwick was in his 27th year.—North British Mail.

A Fiend.—The Herald says officer Neilson arrived in this city, yesterday, with a warrant for the arrest of a brute named Christian Frederick Streese, who committed a rape upon his step-daughter, a girl but ten years old. The parties reside in Mayville, Dodge County, Wisconsin. The brutal act was committed on the 18th of December, and came to light by the confession of the child, last week. A warrant was issued for the inhuman monster, but he escaped. In Milwaukee he was arrested by the police of that city, and Chief Beck sent a telegraphic dispatch, on Saturday, to a Horicon Justice of the Peace, stating that he was arrested.

That functionary did not forward the dispatch to Mayville until Monday, and the authorities at Milwaukee let him go. Officer Kauffman, of the detective force of the city, took a description of Streese, and started out in search of him. He arrested him yesterday afternoon on South Canal street, and locked him up. Officer Neilson will take him back to Mayville to-day.—Chicago Jour.

After Them.—Mr. Keogh, a printer, has proposed a resolution in the Assembly, that the Committee on Printing, be, and they are hereby instructed to report to this Assembly, whether in their opinion the fees now asked and received by the legal profession, for the conducting of all cases in our courts, are not so exorbitant and oppressive as to require at our hands the adoption of a law restricting and defining their charges.—Janesville Gazette.

Mr. Keogh's resolution lies upon the table, side by side, with Mr. Cobb's resolution.—Mr. Cobb thinks the community can get along without printers; Mr. Keogh proposes, at the same time, in order to preserve a proper equilibrium in the universe, to "wipe out" lawyers.—Madison Patriot.

The All England Eleven.—These famous cricketers, who came over to this country some months since, and had all their expenses paid, and more too, have been abusing the Americans since they got home, for treating them so inhospitably. "An Englishman," who is a member of the Rochester Club, which paid $1,500 to meet the expenses of these growling John Bulls, in a communication in the Union, says that with two exceptions they were low, ignorant fellows, who didn't know what good treatment was.

The Memphis Argus, of the 14th, relates that a Northern passenger was pitched headlong from the cars when in motion, on the Tennessee Central Railroad, a few days before, for venturing to converse in condemnation of slavery with the passengers, who seized him by the collar, then kicked him to the door and off the platform. The Argus says: "We did not learn that the rascal broke his neck by the fall; but if such was the case, the country hasn't experienced any very great loss."

A Venerable Tea Party.—On the evening of January 25th, a party of seven ladies met at a dwelling on State street, whose uniform ages amounted to 431 years. The party comprised two sisters, and the widows of three of their deceased brothers, and two sisters by sons' marriage. Such instances of longevity are extremely rare.—Racine Jour.

THE CITY.

The Weekly Sentinel

Is now ready, containing the news of the week, and a large amount of original matter. Single copies five cents.

Buffalo Benevolent Association.

We have received an invitation from H. W. Faxon, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, to attend the grand annual festival of this Society, which takes place on Thursday evening, Feb. 9. Accompanying the "invite" we find an appeal to the benevolent, from which we take the following:

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS.

Gentlemen or Ladies desirous of sending donations to the Festival, (all of which are to become the property of the poor, to be fairly distributed by a committee of prominent men of the city,) and it is hoped no gentleman who receives this invitation will fail in this particular—will find in the list hereafter given, abundant aggravation for the vacation of their pockets, the decimation of their personal property, and the disintegration of their in stocks and things. But no gentleman—and the suggestion we hope will sink deeply into the hearts of the benevolent—will be so carried away by the excitement of the occasion as to donate or subscribe anything that may militate against the claims of his own widow and orphans, for the prior demands of our own widows and orphans should be paramount to all else.

The following articles will be gratefully received and registered by a competent bureau of secretaries, and published in their regular order, ad libitum, which is Muscovite, for "donate as much as you can afford to."

GARMENTS AND CLOTHING.

The following clothing will be received:—Pea Jackets, Monkey Jackets and Water Jackets, Waistcoats of Muslin de Laine, velvet and chenelle, and Vests of chambray, wool, cotton, thread lace, broadcloth and bandanna; Pantaloons with the pockets mortticed in, of silk, cotton, worsted, moire antique and tarletan; Under Shirts of calf skin, lamb's wool, sheep skin, silk, satinett or papier mache; Drawers of wool, slippery elm, tin foil, silk, cut velvet, with Valenciennes trimmings and Brussels lace; Stockings of silk, cotton or alluvial, with or without hinges in the heels; Neck Ties of hemp, silk, shittim wood, shoestring or welting cord; Buffalo skins and Balmoral skirts; Russian sable, fitch, martin, ermine, or mink capes, cloaks, muffs and cuffs; Suspenders—male and female; pearl buttons and spool cotton; long stockings, hooped skirts—with or without flounces or the patent "protruberer;" sacking brocatelle, damask, bagging and other curtain goods. In fact, everything made of any description of fibre will be received except the New York Herald.

LUXURIES.

After the solids and substantials, as above enumerated, the following luxuries will be especially acceptable:

Gold in pieces, bags or peck measures—gold must always be accompanied by the name of the donor; silver in limited quantities—no nickel cents accepted, unless the usual discount is allowed; bills of exchange on London, in large amounts; bills of international, colonial and joint stock banks; ancient down undersleeves, gold thimbles, and complete sets of coral jewelry, a la Clark; boss' condiments and Meerschaums; Howell's flour by the wagon load; diamond rings and undoubted land warrants; turtle in the shell or in cans; false teeth, on gold or india rubber plate; ladies' embroideries, worked collars and skating boots; last confessions of murderers, hangmen's ropes, sentences of Superior Courts, and the profits on a daily newspaper; counterfeit coin by the single sample or hundred weight; tortoise shell and gold mounted spectacles; opera glasses and glass eyes; patent trusses, cod liver oil, and quinine, neuralgia king, Matthews' hair dye, and Pease's lubricating oil; New York and Erie Railroad 1st mortgage bonds, pine apples, corn plaster, Pittsburgh Railroad stocks, and bids for the city printing; backgammon boards, tooth-ache drops, bronchial troches, dried beef and salt rheum ointment; Morgan and Black Hawk horses and colts, Durham bulls, mutton in the wool or carcase, and sulphur and molasses, high-mixed.

OBJECTS OF VIRTU.

Ex-Mayors, ex-city officers, Presidents of unconcluded Canada Banks; Democratic majorities at the last city election, good wood by the cord, hay in bundles or by the load, sheep pelts; Powers' Greek Slaves and Eves, caryatides, aldermen, disappointed office seekers, oil paintings, picture frames, sugar pyramids and kisses,—the tulip variety of the latter preferred—undersleeves, young people who do not love display, corset lacings, extremely ugly persons in glass cases; calicoes in bolts, bales and boxes; ditto linen; ditto cotton; ditto everything woven by hand or loom; Palmer marbles, agate statuary, Peale's Court of Death, and honest Members of Assembly.

Grace Greenwood's Lecture.—We endeavored to get a seat on Saturday evening at Albany Hall. When we say we endeavored to get a seat, we wish all those who were not present to understand what we mean by that. To fully understand it, it must be borne in mind that although we went an hour before the time of commencing, we found not only the hall full, but the passages leading to it. All the extra seats, planks, chairs, fire wood, &c., &c., had been appropriated. There was no chance; but by dint of squeezing and pushing, we managed to get half-way inside one of the doors, and saw Caleb Wall carrying an armful of saw-horses on the stage, the curtain of which was raised to make room for the audience.

At 8 o'clock precisely, Grace Greenwood appeared, attired in a red dress; and being introduced by the President of the Young Men's Association, delivered her lecture in a distinct, though not by any means musical or strong voice. The subject was one which the lady has delivered frequently before, and has been reported and criticised sufficiently.

New Counterfeit Coin.—A new counterfeit half dollar is in circulation, which can be detected only by weight, it being too light. It has not the greasy appearance which is generally noticeable in counterfeit coin, and on that account is all the more dangerous. The one we saw was dated "1853," and has the rays peculiar to the halves and quarters of that year. Look out for it, as it is of a character easy to deceive the unwary.

Lecture on Friday Evening.—J. Hamilton, Esq., of this city, lectured on Friday evening, before Larigo's State Mercantile College to a fair audience. The subject:—"The History of the Press," evinced no small degree of labor, and was, in every respect an entertaining and instructive effort.

These lectures will be continued throughout the season at Mr. Larigo's college.

We notice an article in the Ripon Times headed "Nudity," evidently written for that paper (as it is leaded and not accredited) which is one of the most brilliant articles we ever read. If the Ripon Times intends to keep on with just such pieces as that, it will be one of the best papers in the country, if not in the world.

The Young Men's Lyceum.—A meeting of the members of this popular institution, will take place this evening. The Dred Scott Decision will be discussed. The public are invited to attend. Recollect the room is changed from Sivyer's to Bowman's Block.

This evening a hop takes place at Good Templar's Hall, in Bowman's Block. We presume it will be quite as pleasant as usual.

Lost.—On the evening of the 20th inst., a Mink Fur Victorine, on Spring or Fifth street. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office. jan26d2t

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS,
FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Wisconsin Legislature.

Madison, Jan. 28—3 P. M.

The Assembly met at 10 a. m.

Petitions, Memorials, &c.—By Mr. Bouck, from A. K. Bush and others, concerning writs of attachment in Justice's Courts; by Mr. Phillips, remonstrance of O. W. Chubbuk and others, against the reduction of the rates of legal advertising; also one from Bliss & Sons, of the same nature; by Mr. Cole, against the removal of the Iowa County seat; by Mr. Ordway, the petition of L. Marvin and others, to amend the charter of Beaver Dam.

Resolutions introduced.—To instruct the Judiciary Committee to report a bill providing for the payment of damages in laying out State roads; that a bill be introduced providing for the payment of subordinate officers wages.

Bills introduced.—In relation to actions against the State; to charter the village of Pepin; to incorporate the St. Anthony Mutual Relief Society of Milwaukee; to regulate the heights of miners and others digging for lead ore, to extend the time for the payment of taxes in the village of Oconomowoc; rules suspended and bill passed.

The usual time for the cars to leave having arrived, the usual stampede of members was made, when Mr. Bouck moved a call of the House, which prevailed. The remaining members amused themselves in discussing points of order, until the return of the Sergeant-at-Arms who reported that the absentees could not be found. The House then went into committee of the whole on the general file of bills.

Senate.—Several of the Senators were absent this morning.

Bills Introduced—To authorize the Tradesmen's Bank and the Bank of Oconto to reduce their capital stock; to convey power upon the investigating committee to enquire into the financial affairs of the county of Dane; to protect the wool growing interests of the State of Wisconsin.

A long and interesting discussion took place in the committee on the whole on the bill for the reduction of the number of grand and petit jurors in this State, in which a large number of Senators participated.

The Senate adjourned until Monday, at 3 P. M.

The Discussion in the House.

Washington, Jan. 27.

In the discussion which preceded the vote for Speaker, Mr. Vallandingham, of Ohio, said he understanding Mr. Smith to always have been a Whig, and never anything but a Whig, and representing as he, Mr. V. did, a large and most respectable Whig element, he was ready, whenever his vote could be made efficient, to vote for Mr. Smith for Speaker over Mr. Sherman. He would not, in such a case, be responsible for the disorganization of the House, if not a dissolution of the government. Public duty demanded the waiving of men's preferences as to the candidate, and the time when his vote would elect a national man Speaker over Sherman having arrived, he would now vote for Mr. Smith.

Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, said he represented a native and naturalized constituency, of all religious beliefs—German and Irish, Protestant and Catholic. His naturalized constituents were honest and patriotic. He would vote for no man who would proscribe them or whose sympathies were against them. He had conversed with Mr. Smith and learned from him that he had never had any connection with the Know Nothing order, or sympathy with its proscriptional tests. He, therefore, to organize the House on a national basis, voted for Mr. Smith.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, said that when Mr. Smith's name was presented, he made inquiry and learned that he was an old line Whig. His (Cox's) colleague, Pendleton, had just then been in conversation with Smith, and reported that Mr. Smith not only was not a Know Nothing, but that he was opposed to the order and its principles, and that he had never been and was not now a member of a K. N. lodge, but had denounced it. If this be true, and I say it is, I look Mr Smith, who is now present, in the eye when I assert it. There can be no difficulty in giving him my vote, in this emergency of the Republic, and defeat the Republicans.

An old Line Whig, who is not in any way connected with the offensive order, who stands on the compromise of '50, and who, I understand, was elected over a gentleman of the Slave Code, I can vote for; but I would no go out of my party to vote, if I were not assured it would produce an organization. I said I would never vote for a Republican or a Know Nothing, and I never will; I do not now; I vote for an Old Line Whig, and such ma voted to send me here. I am the more satisfied with my vote, as since the call of th roll, the gentlemen on the other side, members from Pennsylvania, have deserted M. Smith, after voting for him. I have given as a reason that he is not an American; this confirms Mr. Smith's own statements to M. Pendleton, and my own statement in his presence.

Herald's Correspondence.—The proceedings in the House to day demonstrate the fact that Sherman cannot be elected. Six of his friends from Pennsylvania and New Jersey went over to Mr. Smith, of North Carolina, were to tantalize the Democrats, not from any supposition that the latter would concentrate upon Mr. Smith, he being an American, but to the consternation of these gents, all the Democrats, except Messrs. Holman and Davis of Indiana, and Allen of Ohio, voted for him, which would have elected him had not five of the Sherman men taken the back track and changed their votes from Sherman to Corwin and Pennington. They did not do so until Mr. Sherman rose and recorded his vote for Corwin, making an additional vote necessary to a choice, which was the signal of danger.

Probable Withdrawal of Mr. Sherman.

New York, Jan. 27—3 P. M.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says Mr. Sherman has called a conference of his friends, to meet at noon to-day, and will withdraw if another candidate can be selected. He has been prepared to do so for a fortnight, and was only restrained by the fact that additional votes had not been demonstrated upon Messrs. Pennington, Corwin, or Morris, as had been repeatedly promised.—Mr. Pennington will probably be nominated. Mr. Smith will probably be dropped by the Democrats, and the South Americans be allowed to select a candidate upon whom they can unite.

The Times correspondent says the chances now are that Corwin will be elected on Monday. Some Republicans go for Corwin, and others for Hickman, but it is evident from the canvass of opinion to-night, that Pennington can reach more men outside of Sherman's strength, than any other man, and the friends of Sherman will not object to him, if the majority of the Republicans declare for him.

Mr. Adrian refused to vote for Mr. Smith, a Southern Whig, because he understood him to be in favor of protecting Slaves in the Territories, but says he will vote for a Northern Whig like Gov. Pennington, which he will probably have an opportunity of doing on Monday.

Mr. Seward had a public reception at his residence last night, which was numerously attended.

Arrival of the Nova Scotian.

Portland, Jan. 28—3 P. M.

The steamer Nova Scotia, from Liverpool on the 11th inst., has just arrived.

The news is unimportant.

The R. M. steamer America, from Boston, via Halifax, arrived at Queenstown on the 9th inst.

The steamer North America, from Portland, arrived at Queenstown on the 10th.

The America reached Liverpool on the night of the 9th, and the North America arrived there on the 11th.

A Paris dispatch says it was growing every day more doubtful whether the Congress would assemble, and the Paris correspondent of the London Times says the chances of the Congress meeting were of the most shadowy kind.

A French journal says the opinion of the national, which was supposed to speak with the same authority, believes that if Italy decided for the annexation of the north and centre of the Italian Peninsula, England would gladly accept the combination, whilst France would accept it with still greater eagerness, on condition that Savoy and Nice should be restored to her.

Opinion does not anticipate that the Cabinet of Turin would object, and argues that neither Austria, Russia or Prussia has power, will or right to interfere.

Italy.—The Prussian ministerial organ, though still of the opinion that the restoration of the Grand Duchies of Italy would have been the most desirable solution of the Italian question, gives up its project as impossible, and thinks annexation to Sardinia far preferable.

Arrival of the Isabella.

Burning of the Ship John J. Boyd,

New York, Jan. 28—3 P. M.

The ship John J. Boyd was burned at her dock this morning. She was loaded for Liverpool, and had already stored 1,800 bbls of Naval stores, 500 bales of cotton, 900 tierces of beef, 400 tierces of bacon, 200 bbls of lard, and 4,000 bushels of grain.

She is insured, upwards of 1,300 tons, and is five years old. She was owned by Wm. Lyon.

Steamer Sunk.

Cincinnati, Jan. 28—9 P. M.

The steamer A. O. Tyler, with 500 tons freight, from Cincinnati to New Orleans, struck an old wreck and sunk in 13 feet of water, thirty miles below Cincinnati yesterday. Heavy loss on cargo.

The steamer was valued at $25,000, and is insured for $15,000. She can probably be raised.

Brakeman Arrested.

Greenbush, Jan. 18—3 P. M.

Hartley, the Hudson River Railroad brakeman, was arrested this morning by the Sheriff of Greenbush. He will be taken to Yonkers this evening.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Additional by the Nova Scotian.

Portland, Jan. 28—9 P. M.

Among the pall bearers at Lord Macaulay's funeral, were the Lord Chancellor, the Speaker of the House of Commons, Lord John Russel, Earl of Carlisle, &c. The funeral was private, but, although divested of all pomp and ceremony, was very impressive.

An election at Reading had resulted in the choice of a Jew, Mr. Goldsmidt, as a member of Parliament.

A large demonstration, presided over by Dr. Cullen, had been held at Dublin. It is represented to have been a failure.

France.—Lord Cowley had returned to Paris. The Patrie says his mission to London was truly one of importance. He is represented by one authority, to have announced that Count Walewski's retirement very materially facilitated relations between the Cabinets of France and England.

Count Lullemand has been appointed Charge de Affairs ad interim, at Constantinople.

The appointment of Gen. McMahon to the command of the army in Italy, numbering 50,000, was regarded as a sign of warlike complications.

A chapel in connection with the English church in Paris, after having been opened for two years, had been suddenly closed by the French authorities; it was believed on account of a service having been given in French, for the benefit of children of British subjects who do not understand English.

Spain and Morocco.—The following telegrams indicate the course of events in Morocco, according to Spanish accounts.

Madrid, Jan. 3d.—The Spanish have advanced on the road to Telran without being attacked. Gen. Scabala had recovered from his illness.

The Spanish loss in the action at Castellogas, was 78 killed, 48 wounded.

Madrid, Jan 5th.—Yesterday the Spanish were attacked in the valley Negro, by 2,000 Moorish cavalry and 2,000 infantry.—They were dispersed by the Spaniards, who had 5 killed and 15 wounded. The health of the troops at the encampment is improving.

Madrid, Jan. 7th.—The whole army encamped this morning to the north of Negro valley, after having defiled through the passes without opposition. In the course of the day a council of generals, was held to determine upon a plan of operations.

It is stated that the army in Africa will be considerably increased.

Latest—dated Madrid, Jan. 9th—reports that stormy weather had prevented communication with the squadron, but the storm had abated and communication had been re-established.

The Spanish forces had again moved forward.

Italy.—The news of Count Walewski's resignation had produced a very painful impression on the Pope. He called together the principal members of the Sacred College and declared to them that, he would never fail in the mission which God had entrusted him with, but that like his predecessor, Pius 7th, he would suffer exile an even martyrdom rather than do so.

It is said that France supports the protest of Piedmont against the enlistment of foreigners in the Papal Army, and particularly against the wholesale introduction of Austrian recruits into Ancona.

The theatres of Venice had been closed, on account of political demonstrations.

Letters from Genoa speak of the possibility of hostilities being resumed in Italy. It was believed that the Papal troops, reinforced by the Austrians, would enter the Legations, and in that case Sardinia would send a force to the aid of the Roman insurgents. The king of Naples was reported to be largely increasing his forces. The Pope is said to have addressed another note to all Catholic powers except Sardinia. Rumors had been current of an intention on the part of the Pope to quit Rome, but the Paris Patrie gives a denial to the report.

Austria.—Charges become rife against Austria, of disguised intervention in Italy.

The Austrian government had ordered Prince Metternich to declare to the French Cabinet, that it would decline to enter into negotiations on any other basis than the agreement of Villa Franca, or the treaty of Zurich.

India and China.—A Trieste despatch gives additional news from China and India, dated, Canton, Nov. 26th, and Calcutta, Dec. 8th.

The treaty between the U. S. and China had been put in force.

Part of the English troops, designed for operations against the Chinese, had already left for the north.

India.—Despatches announce that Jung Bahador was operating against the Rebels in Terai.

Bologna, Jan. 11.—The Revolutionary Committee has organized manifestations in the neighborhood of the Papal provinces. Those which took place in the Theatre of Ancona and Besare, are especially mentioned. On the authorities appearing in their boxes, the spectators left the theatres as if in accordance with a preconcerted arrangement. New pamphlets against the temporal power of the Pope, had been published in the Legations and Tuscany.

Very Latest.—The Universe, is the only paper allowed to publish the Pope's discourse. The impression produced by this Imperial missive is generally favorably regarded at Paris, and produced nearly as much sensation as the pamphlet.

The Independence Belge says there was no foundation for the report that Marshal Canrobert was to be sent on an extraordinary mission to Rome, and he has already returned to his command at Nancy.

Italy—The aspect of the Italian question has caused much rejoicing at Venice and Milan. The first electoral college of the latter place chose Count Cavour as its candidate, after previously obtaining his consent.

Austria.—The agitation against the Concordat was increasing.

The Austrian public openly speak of the propriety of selling Venetia.

Employees and some Government officers have received orders not to take part in public conversation, respecting the events of the times.

France.—The Gazette de France had received a private warning from the Minister of the Interior.

Cincinnati, Jan. 28—9 P. M.

At a banquet last evening Gov. Dennison read a despatch from Gov. Morgan, in behalf of the Legislature of N. Y., requesting the Legislatures of Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio to visit Albany, which was received with much enthusiasm. The guests this morning, after witnessing the operations of the Fire Department, visited Nicholas Longworth's house, where they were hospitably entertained. The Kentucky Legislature left for Frankfort at 1 and the Tennessee Legislature for Louisville at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Later from Utah.

Leavenworth, Jan. 28—9 P. M.

In addition to the amount of gold received by the Pike's Peak Express, yesterday, about $20,000 are reported by private hands. The winter at Salt Lake Valley, is reported as having been very severe.

Considerable disorder existed at Camp Floyd and a soldier had been murdered by an unknown assassin.

The Salt Lake Valley Tan says that over two hundred murders have been committed in that territory, within the past three years. Not a single offender has been convicted or punished.

Republican Caucus at Washington.

Washington, Jan. 28—9 P. M.

The Republican members of Congrss held a caucus at the Capitol to-day. There was a full attendance but no result was obtained. Many came away before the adjournment, leaving others discussing in brief speeches the subject of the Speakership.

In consequence of this non-agreement, the Republicans will go into the House on Monday without any particular candidate among themselves, as on the first day of the session.

New York, Jan. 28—9 P. M.

Wm. J. Carey, of this city, who was injured by the accident on the Hudson River Railroad, died in Tarrytown yesterday.

A Chance for Somebody.—The following advertisement appears in the Keokuk County (Iowa) Democrat, and is guaranteed by the editor to be genuine:

Wanted.—I want a husband—that's plain talk, ain't it? I am what the folks call pretty—can love a man as much as the law allows; am only 18 years of age—can cook, talk wise or fashionable; milk cows or sow on shirt buttons. The gentleman must be between the ages of 20 and 30—a good prospect for the future, and an out-and-out teetotaller. Address, Jennie Tulip,
Sigourney P. O.

Wheat Shipments.—From the railroad books, it appears that the following amounts of wheat have been received at the La Crosse depot, from the several up river towns named:

St. Paul,	3,899 bus.
Hastings,	17,560 "
Red Wing,	17,969 "
Lake City,	12,355 "
Wabasha	1,200 "
Reed's Landing,	1,190 "
Winona,	72,175 "

It should be noticed with the above, that the receipts from Winona include all the wheat received since the close of the river.—The points above are too remote to ship by sled navigation. There is no doubt that Winona, next to La Crosse, is the best wheat port for Minnesota.—La Crosse Union.

Mail to Bayfield.—The Bayfield Press says: We are happy to announce the establishment of a weekly mail between Bayfield and the St. Croix at Sunrise. This will prove a great convenience to us and expedite the transmission of our eastern mail more than by any previous arrangement. The first mail on the new route left here on Thursday morning last. We may now have some confidence in receiving our letters and papers in due season, and with regularity.

Enterprising.—Messrs. Terry & Arnold, of the Berlin Courant, saved part of their type, but lost their press in the fire which scourged Berlin last week. They continue the regular publication of their paper, sending their "forms" from Berlin to Ripon, and procuring their press work done at this office until they can obtain a new press.—Ripon Times.

The North-West.

"JOHN QUINCY ADAMS," says the New York Tribune, "received the vote of none of the Western States either in 1824 or 1828; HENRY CLAY in '32 had the vote of his own Kentucky only; in '44, Ohio alone of all the States carved out of the National Domain voted for him, though he had also the votes of Kentucky and Tennessee. Gen. HARRISON, a veteran pioneer, associated with the founders of the North-West in their early struggles and trials, whether of peace or war, carried in '36 and '40 all the States then existing beyond the Ohio, Illinois excepted. This was a personal rather than a political triumph; for not only did Indiana, Illinois and Michigan prefer POLK to CLAY in '44, but Gen. TAYLOR, popular as he was, lost every State North-West of the Ohio in '48. Though elected, he carried none of the States formed from the National Domain; and none of them voted for Gen. SCOTT in 1852.

In 1856, Col. FREMONT received the votes of Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa—33 in all—but lost those of Indiana and Illinois—24. Since then, Minnesota has come into the Union and Kansas is coming, swelling the Electoral vote of the North-West in 1860 to 69—a number which will be raised in '64 above one hundred by the census about to be taken. The North-West will thenceforth be the strongest division of the Confederacy.

"In the Presidential election at hand, the Republicans will certainly carry a large majority both of the Popular and Electoral votes of the North-West, and may carry the whole. If they nominate judiciously and canvass thoroughly, they may sweep every State between the Ohio and the Missouri. Outside the Federal offices, there is no Democratic party in the North-West but that which looks to Senator DOUGLAS for guidance and inspiration, and his Democracy is hardly more acceptable to the dark Power which is now riding the National Democratic party to perdition than that of JEFFERSON, SEWARD or TRUMBULL. We believe the SLIDELLS, IVERSONS, CURRYS, Alabama PUGHS, and WISES, who now direct the political machinery of the South, if they shall ever be compelled to choose between the election of DOUGLAS to the Presidency and that of a Republican, will take care that the successful candidate shall at all events not be DOUGLAS.

Even the Democracy in the North-West may therefore be regarded as revolters from the dominion of Slave Power. For Mr. DOUGLAS cannot be nominated at Charleston on any platform that he could stand before the country upon without conscious disgrace; and, if he could be, the South would bolt and he would get the vote of no Slave State. And, while we anticipate the nomination at Charleston of some BRECKENRIDGE, HUNTER or JOE LANE, in whose behalf electoral tickets will be run and a vigorous canvass made throughout the North-West as elsewhere, we judge that he has but an even chance to carry Indiana, half a chance for Illinois, and no chance at all for any other North-Western State. If he is elected, it must be by the solid vote of the South, the seven electors on the Pacific coast, and such aid as the money of the cottonized brokers and dry goods men of the Atlantic cities can buy in the old seaboard States. Even the Democracy of the North West refuses the new doctrines of the Slave Power, whereby Popular Sovereignty in the Territories is transformed into popular impotency; and, even if they should hereafter accept those doctrines, the only consequence would be in their own depression into a mere meagre and hopeless minority.

For the Public Land question is exercising, and must increasingly exercise, a commanding influence over the political action of the North-West; and that influence enures to the benefit of the Republicans. True, Mr. DOUGLAS and other North-Western Democrats sustain the policy of Free Homesteads; but their party does not: on the contrary, it opposes and defeats that policy. And this question is, for hundreds and thousands in the North-West, paramount to all others.—That section is seeing hard times—hard even for a new country. Its crops have, in most localities, been very light for three years past, and have, nevertheless sold at low prices. The settlers have suffered by flood and frost, and devouring insects. They were tempted, three years since, to borrow money at usurious rates to invest in lands; and those lands will not pay the mortgages on them.—They have dipped heavily into Railroads, and are sadly out of pocket thereby. There are sections in which need has driven the majority to such desperate resorts as stay-laws and repudiation. Their currency is, of course, dilapidated or invisible. Tens of thousands are living as squatters on quarter-sections which they cannot pay for, and which any body may buy over their heads. They could not borrow, even at 25 per cent., the money requisite to buy their homes; and if they could borrow it at that rate, years must elapse before they could pay it. For their produce can only be sold at low rates, and many of them have little to spare at any rate. If every overdue mortgage were foreclosed, and every debt pressed to execution, a full third of the People of the States west of the Wabash must be stripped of all they have. Many of them owed more in '57 than they do now, but they never had harder work to postpone debts or pay them than to-day.

From this sea of troubles, the Republican measure of Free Lands proffers a present and palpable relief. From the date of its passage the poor squatter will no longer look forward to the approaching land sale for his district as that which will either strip him of his home or compel him to hold it on an "article" binding him, on pain of forfeiture, to pay $200 with interest at 24 to 50 per cent. to some greedy speculator. If his quarter-section has not already been sold, it is his without cost; if it has been, he can say to whoever holds the deed or mortgage over his head, "Turn me off if you will; I can take up a new quarter-section without payment, and feel that it is mine beyond contingency and forever." Free Homesteads would very soon reduce the rates of interest current in the North-West to a figure that an honest man might hope by industry and frugality to pay. A new life would be breathed into the trade, the agriculture, of that noble region; there would be hope on the horizon and joy in the hearts of hundreds of thousands now bordering on despair. Let us trust that this great measure of benignity and justice cannot be fought off even for a single year longer.

The Chief Justiceship.

ED. SENTINEL:—As the period for designating a candidate to fill the Chief Justiceship approaches, it is very natural to enquire what the Republican party purpose to do in the premises; and to insure a wise and correct solution of this inquiry nothing is more essential than a comparison of views and a free and frank expression of opinion among the members of our party. Let the matter be discussed, and when the prevailing sentiment shall be made known and the judgment of the Republican electors developed we shall be prepared, waiving all personal preferences and predilictions, to pursue the course which may thus be indicated and unite as one man in the support of the Republican nominee.—Because we may take it for granted that however many independent candidates may enter the field, there will be a regular candidate of each of the leading parties who will be supported on party grounds, and whose success or defeat will be the success or defeat of one of the political parties of the State.

The question which we propound and which we submit, the first to be considered and determined, is a very simple one:—shall the party abandon its position and doctrine on the State Rights question? Shall Wisconsin abandon its hostilities as a State to the Federal slave-catching enactment? This is the proposition plainly stated.

The question is not one of individuals: not whether A. B. or C. is competent for the position, it being conceded that E. F. or G. is just as competent. But will the party of Freedom in this State, here and now, in view of what has already transpired, in view of the demands of the Federal Power, and especially in view of the moral considerations which are irrevocably linked to the policy and position of the Republican organization as it stands opposed to the Fugitive Slave Law, abandon its ground?

If yea, then the line of duty is apparent, and the nomination may be considered as already made.

What say the Republican electors of Wisconsin?

It is absurd to suggest that the questions which have occupied our Court will not arise again and that hence all differences of opinion, judicial or otherwise, ought to be waived or disregarded. In the first place the assumption is unauthorized; and in the second place, even if we concede its truth, the abandonment of principle is none the less apparent on that account. The Republican party can vote for no man who is out and out against our hitherto position on State Rights, without a palpable or confessed abandonment of that position.

We feel constrained to say, moreover, that the opinion of Chief Justice DIXON, touching this subject, not only by its very character as a judicial opinion, but from the terms employed in the preliminary part thereof, must have been regarded by him as erecting an impassible barrier between himself and the party at whose hands, indirectly, he received his position. He knew the settled policy and doctrine, oft reiterated, of the Republican party of Wisconsin, when accepting the appointment. He knew that no man could receive the suffrages of that party in Wisconsin, who occupied a position of hostility to that doctrine; and we should give him but little credit for astuteness, did we not concede that he anticipated the necessary and legitimate effect of his decision; and did not feel unwilling to assume the position of opposition to the Republican party in Wisconsin which that decision implied. Else why plead the doctrine of stare decisis in other cases when the law might be deemed incorrect, and depart from the doctrine of stare decisis in this single instance.

But, however this may be, one thing is certain, the Republican party cannot hope to succeed in this State with any candidate, no matter what his personal qualifications, who is hostile to the State Rights doctrine as heretofore maintained by our courts. If there is any one question on which the party in Wisconsin may be regarded as fixed in its opinions it is that question.

But it may possibly be urged that inasmuch as some of the Southern States are threatening to go out of the Union in a certain contingency, it behooves us to be careful lest we furnish an embarrassing and dangerous precedent, and prepare the way to be "hoist with our own petard."

It is a sufficient answer to these timid intimations to say that Wisconsin does not propose to go out of the Union, but to oppose the grasping demands of the Federal Power, which means simply the Slave power, in the Union. When Wisconsin proposes and undertakes a war upon the union of these States, and seeks to dismember the Government by force, if necessary, then will it be time to fear the danger of her position as a precedent. The position Wisconsin has assumed has naturally and inevitably resulted from the infamous demands of the Slavocracy, that the State should be hunting grounds for slave-catchers. The bill known as the Fugitive Slave Law, virtually strikes down the habeas corpus and trial by jury. The doctrine of our court has resulted as a necessity. In no other way could the rights of our citizens, under the Federal as well as State Constitution, be conserved. The position Wisconsin has assumed in self-defence, and out of regard to the fundamental rights of her citizens, and which has been taken in the Union and under the common Constitution, is one thing: the position of Mississippi or South Carolina, in threatening to make an open demonstration, by physical force against the Union and the Government in case they cannot have their way, not in construing but in defying and trampling upon the Constitution, is quite another.

When either of these last named States undertake to break up the Government because a minority cannot rule, the State Rights Party of Wisconsin will undertake the business of putting them in order, and they will be sure not only to encounter the slave-propaganda at the South, but their allies, the slave Democracy of Wisconsin; for it is to be remembered that the abhorrence of the Democracy to State Rights is only the measure of its devotion to Slavery.

We repeat the question, shall our party abandon its position and give up the State Rights doctrine? Can we hope to carry the State if we do? To ask the question is to answer it. Nor can we abandon our position without giving aid and comfort to the enemy, as well as incurring an overwhelming defeat at the polls. But one path is open to us, and that is straight forward. Put a nominee, one who is competent—a new man, who represents our principles, into the field; the sooner the better, and go to the people; and we can find you men who will take the contract and give you a majority of 10,000 electors as surety, to carry the State for such nominee.

WHY INDIANIANS ARE CALLED HOOSIERS.—The Rev. AARON WOOD, recently delivered a course of lectures in Greencastle on "The Unwritten history of Indiana," in the course of which he stated the origin of the word Hoosier, as follows:

"Louisville was a great resort for the Indiana folks, and very frequently rows would occur. The Kentucky bullies would swear they were 'half hoss, half aligator, and the balance snappin-turtle.' On a certain occasion, a Mr. Short, who had heard old Col. Lemonosky lecture on the wars of Napoleon, in which he related the battle of Cossacks and Hussars, (the Col. pronounced it Hoosars,) was in Louisville, and got into a muss, when he jumped up and swore he was a Hoosier; since which time we have been called Hoosars."

"I am very sorry," said a learned judge to a young woman, who hesitated much in giving some unpleasant evidence, "I am very sorry to have to enforce such an explanation as this; it must of course be painful to any decent person, but the ends of justice require it; and not only so, but all the well-dressed females you see on either side of me, have come a long way to hear that which pains you so to utter."

FROM MADISON.

Grand Jury—Printer's Fees—Milwaukee Matters, &c.

MADISON, Jan. 27, 1860.

DEAR SENTINEL.—A debate sprung up in the Senate concerning the abolition of the Grand Jury system, in which Senator RUDOLF enquired respecting the Constitution of the United States, and whether it should not prohibit the passage of the law under consideration.

The provision is in the amendments to the constitution adopted in 1789. It is in article V.: "No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service, in time of war or public danger."

Senator HANCHETT believed that the provision in the United States Constitution applied only to cases arising under the laws of Congress and did not interfere with the regulations of State Courts.

When the "final vote" is taken on that construction, your subscriber begs leave to have his name recorded in the negative.

Senator BENNETT thought the crime of murder should not be a bailable offence. A pending resolution, as to that, was recommitted, so that, hereafter, a rich murderer will stand no better chance than a poor ragged one. This will have a tendency to render murder unfashionable.

PRINTER'S FEES.

The bill in relation to the reduction of fees for legal advertising, was recalled from the Assembly by the Senate. Sound the hewgag and let the whirligig speak aloud; great, great, is Allah! That serpent has gone back into his hole again;

> "It wiggled out and wiggled in,
> And never lived to change its skin."

It was fit and proper that the following resolution, introduced by ANDREW E. ELMORE, merchant, of Mukwonago, and now member of Assembly, should be unanimously adopted:

Whereas: Wisconsin still is one of the States of the Union, and whereas it is a time honored and proper custom to have the flag of our common country waving its folds over the capitol during the session of the Legislature, therefore,

Resolved: That the Superintendent of Public Property be and he hereby is directed to cause the Stars and Stripes, our national flag, to be displayed each day during the sitting of the Legislature, or either branch thereof, in some suitable place on the top of the capitol building.

We might object to the resolutions, because a national flag suggests the old song about "the land of the "Free," and that is an "incendiary" expression, calculated to endanger the Union, destroy the confidence of Southern gentlemen in the good faith of the North, &c., &c., &c.;—see daily talks in "Our Debating Society," in Washington.

MILWAUKEE MATTERS, &c.

A bill was introduced to reduce the capital stock of the Farmers and Millers Bank, Milwaukee. Also, a bill by Mr. HOLTON, relating to Milwaukee Circuit and County Courts.

Mr. COMSTOCK introduced a bill to amend the act establishing a Municipal Court in Milwaukee.

In the Assembly, on Thursday, a bill was ordered to a third reading, which provides that, whenever a road is laid out, the land shall be paid for before it is taken. They will have a sweet time in getting roads up in the new counties. Roads are so necessary and land owners are so contrary, that every facility should be given for laying them (the landowners and the roads,) out. The Assembly begins to assume "form and void;" the husks are dropping off from the minds of ye members, and behold the ears are full.—We have some good men here.

Always yours,
INWARIABLE.

ROSA BONHEUR.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says:—"An artist gives me a fresh and reliable bit of news about Rosa Bonheur. That triumphant specimen of a manly woman is about to visit the United States professionally. An opulent French gentleman, an enthusiast in art, some time since commissioned her ladyship to cross the Atlantic, proceed to the great prairies of the far west, and paint from life a herd of wild buffaloes. She was to take her own time, accomplish it in her own way, and fix her own price. At first she declined to entertain the proposition, but finally, after turning it over in her mind and reflecting upon what an original and splendid work she could make, she has accepted the offer, and comes over in the spring to make the picture. It has given the French individual feelings of the most celestial character and made him, in fact, the most tickled person in all Gaul."

SENATOR SEWARD TELLS THE FRENCH EMPEROR WHAT HE THINKS OF THE POPE.—During his European tour Senator Seward called upon Napoleon at Compeigne. After the usual salutation, and taking his position, standing with his back to the fire, he offered the Senator a cigar, and commenced smoking another himself. He asked all about New York and Colonel Webb, and then asked him about his visit to Europe, and whom and what he saw. Mr. Seward, among other objects of interest, said he had seen the Pope. "Oh, yes, the Pope," responded Napoleon, "tell me all about him. What do you think of the Pope?" The New York Senator hesitated a moment; but notwithstanding his characteristic caution, the Emperor wormed out his opinion, and Seward said, "I confess I think him much more of a priest than a statesman." "Precisely so," rejoined the Emperor, "you have just hit the nail on the head. That, too, is my opinion."

THE PERSON who shipped the cargo of bones from Sebastopol, whose arrival in England created so much uneasiness, writes from Odessa, that the bones were cattle bones, collected from the sites of the late encampment. The graveyards in the Crimea are said to be thoroughly protected. He also states that of the fleet sunk at Sebastopol, only one vessel raised up to the present, has been considered worthy of reparation, the steamer Turk, which is now being reconstructed at Nicolaief. About two hundred tons of broken cannon have been dug out of the debris of the fortifications, and upwards of 15,000 tons of broken shot and shell have been collected. Nine of the ill-fated Tiger's guns have been sent home by Mr. France.

THE BOSTON friends of Chas. Sumner, sent him a beautiful present on New Year's day. It was a set of knives, forks and spoons which formerly belonged to Count Batthyany, the Hungarian patriot who was shot by the Austrians a few years ago. His property was confiscated and sold at auction, and these articles were purchased by an American who happened to be in Austria at the time. They are very magnificent, made of gold, with handles of onyx, set with turquoises.

A WIFE.

The wife sat thoughtfully turning over
A book inscribed with the school-girl's name;
A tear—one tear—fell hot on the cover
She quickly closed when her husband came.

He came, and he went away—it was nothing—
With cold calm words upon either side;
But, just at the sound of the room-door shutting,
A dreadful door in her soul stood wide.

Love, she had read of it in sweet romances,—
Love that could sorrow, but never fail,
Built her own palace of noble fancies,
All the wide world a fairy tale.

Bleak and bitter, and utterly doleful,
Spreads to this woman her map of life;
Hour after hour she looks in her soul, full
Of deep dismay and turbulent strife.

Face in both hands, she knelt on the carpet;
The black cloud loosen'd the storm-rain fell;
Oh! life has so much to wilder and warp it,—
One poor heart's day what poet could tell?
—Once a Week.

TWENTY STEPS TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

"They say that she is too gay; but I believe her to have a good heart, and to prefer the 'Locusts' to the city, though for the matter of company, Mrs. Therber says they are never without visitors. By the way, Lem, did you notice that Hartington?"

"I did, and cannot say that I admired his features."

"Do you know, there is something strange about it, but I am sure that man has been at our house in the city frequently, to see my uncle. I saw them together in the study on more than one occasion, and one day I asked him who the stranger was, and he said a Mr. Noswell. I am confident it was the same man. It's strange, isn't it, Lem?"

"Why, somewhat, but I think you must be mistaken."

Mary, however, persisted in the belief that Noswell and Hartington were one and the same person, and out of compliment to her persistency I at last acknowledged that it must be so—though I was far from feeling the force of the conclusion.

The third degree was taken at the Springs. The season came on, and I made myself unusually agreeable to Olive Ellsley and Minerva Fitzgerald, in the vain hope of meeting the conflagration with a counter fire, but it was useless. Olive deserved credit for her endeavors to win me away from the destruction, and I owe Minerva a debt of thanks for her no-doubt-well-intentioned disparagement of Miss Therber, but the antidote was of no value; I was within the dominions of the circe.

The season came on, and Jerry seduced me away to Newport. Off we went, and put up at the 'Ocean.' For two days we amused ourselves rolling at ten-pins, pointing telescopes at Conanicut, patronizing the archery grounds, and flinging pebbles into the surf. Olive and Minerva were there, but we voted the place a bore and ticketed our carpet bags for Saratoga.

We found a lively change in the appearances. The Springs were thronged. A gayer season never had been known. The chalabiate eclipsed the salt water. Newport never dreamed of such a galaxy as assembled that summer in gauze and kids and flounces and diamonds, to drink out of dirty goblets and tin dippers, and to fish for hearts, over the mineral waves, and talk nonsense under the elms. All the mammas paraded their jewels to the market for the delectation of blaze men. All the loungers of 'the Barge' flourished their canes over the verandah, and all the chivalry of the south seemed to have migrated with endless retinues of horses and groomsmen. Northeral, who makes it a point to fall in love with every pretty face he meets, encountered a Boston belle immediately, that he had met before, and making a sign, with his hands on his heart, of a grand passion, left me.

I very soon learned that the Therber's were there before us—a piece of intelligence which my heart acknowledged if my face did not. By the time I had secured a room, which was no easy task, the day was well nigh spent, so that my first appearance formally in the society assembled was at the "hop." It was a sudden plunge. I might have waded more judiciously, but after a severe 'toilleting,' as Jerry termed it, I boldly presented myself among the indescribable throng at Congress Hall, where bland matrons in costly finery, and starched gentlemen were crowded together and were bowing and mouthing all the conventionable etiquette they were capable of with their best grace. Before I had been in the company five minutes, and had barely time to be saluted by the many acquaintances around around me, I saw Blanche. I say I saw her, but that word utterly fails to convey the startling recognition. She might have been fifteen or twenty feet from me, but I started as though my senses were bewitched. There she was, surrounded by matchless faces and forms, the proudest, brightest of them all; beaming upon my vision with a lustre that astonished me. I no longer wondered at the tribute paid at her feet. I now saw her as the reigning belle, the cynosure of every eye, the radiant queen of whom I had heard.

Perhaps you cannot comprehend this sudden discovery of overpowering beauty, Chartsey. I will confess that I could not understand it myself; but I now can see that, like every other perfection, its first presentation to my eye was rather a harmonious and serene pleasure than an exciting delight, and I had grown to acknowledge the loveliness unwittingly as it were, and on this occasion, when arrayed for the court of Fashion, she was thus suddenly brought to my vision, every sense acknowledged what my heart had asserted long ago. I did not push myself through the gloved crowd of courtiers to claim an acquaintance. I choose to admire at a safe distance; or, rather, I was too bewildered, my proud resolution had met with too grand a revelation, and I found myself shortly afterward saying unmeaning things to a pretty brunette, as an alternative.

However, in the course of the night I was fortunate enough to approach her majesty. She turned full upon me before I could steady myself for the blaze, and the moment she saw me, extended both hands saying, "Why, Lem, how delighted I am to see you." That was a summary method of breaking ice; forthwith flowed the commonplaces of conversation, the observations on the season, the weather, &c.; then the privilege of dancing with her; the whirl of excitement, in which I had the dreamy consciousness of floating through a perfumed atmosphere in company with 'the bright particular star;' that we were the observed of all observers; that once or twice a set of warm fingers sent the blood tingling back to my heart. But it was a transitory extacy. I awoke from it to find another holding the white hand and the sway of delight unceasing, the flow of bewitching music trembling through the moving ranks and I superseded. But I had danced with her—that was a satisfaction. She had greeted me with a cordiality that had been noticed—here was a morsel of sweet food to ruminate.—When I met Northeral in the colonade, he pronounced Saratoga a failure quite—the dullest affair he ever saw.

"Pray what has happened," I asked. "I find myself charmed, delighted, and intend to season it out here."

"Charms indeed," he answered. "All the belles are flirts, and all the beaux noodles.—Fashion has run to extravagance, and beauty resolved itself into vanity. I'm off with the first boat, and you may remain to drink salts with a belief that it is an exisir de armour.—I fancy it's all wish-washy. Vanity upon vanity, as Shakspeare or somebody says, and I'm off to-morrow!"

With that the volatile young man performed a pas de cirque; and assumed the philosophical air of a jilted man.

"To think," he resumed afterwards, "that a woman of so much taste would overlook me for that infernal Hartington."

"Hartington," I exclaimed, "you don't say—"

"'Don't say' what? Has your vision been so blinded that you did not observe that old puffer absorbing all the light and warmth inside. That is enough to wilt any man who lives on smiles. There's my charmer from Charleston too, gone off with nothing on her head but a factitious rose to walk under the elms with Mountford. I hope she'll catch the influenza. Pretty Cressy Cale vows she won't speak to me in a month, and all my dernier resorts are provided with man-dabblers, etomologically speaking, so I must, per-force, go home to my mother, don't you see."—Whereupon he performed a calesthenic vault over the banisters and back, by way of emphasis.

"Who is this Hartington," I asked him, when he returned to the floor, if not to his senses.

"A Southern Alexander," he answered, "rich as Cæsar and proud as New. With more assurance than beauty, and more tallow than talents. The head and front of the corps de ballet, who dance attendance on your immedirte Blanche. By the way, you didn't observe the four-and-twenty votaries, who were thrown into distraction at your unparalleled intrusion upon the Royal lady, just now, and who looked all manner of cutlery at you, and twisted their four-and-twenty moustaches into casus bellis.

You don't notice things in general, can't see the understood league and the tacit understanding that you deserve death."

I laughed at this sally, and a strain of 'Dodsworth's last,' floating to us from the direction of the 'Union.' Jerry waved an adieu with his gloved hand and hurried away.

To those who are familiar with Sands' Chicago Pale Cream Ale, I need say nothing as to its quality; to those who are not, I would simply ask a trial, and I pledge myself to my patrons to do all in my power to make Sands' Pale Cream Ale as popular a beverage in Milwaukee and vicinity as it is in Chicago and surrounding country, and I trust by the assistance of lovers of good Ale, to give Sands' Milwaukee Pale Cream and Amber Ale a reputation second to none in the West.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.
For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite Sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER'S new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damaks, DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

BININGER'S
OLD LONDON DOCK
GIN
A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS,
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties, [Tonic and Diuretic] which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in Cases of one and two dozen each, and sold throughout the world by Druggists, Grocers, &c.

THE GREAT WONDER
Of the Nineteenth Century,
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

SAYS THE ST. LOUIS, (MO.) DEMOCRAT: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic.—Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1856.
Professor O. J. Wood & Co:

GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has resumed its natural color and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

Baltimore, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally loved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, January 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY EVENING, January 28th, 1860.

Money Matters.

The money market has been quiet during the week, no very heavy demand existing either for Currency or Exchange. The latter has been firm at 2 per cent. premium, and to-day Currency is a little scarcer at the banks than it has been for several days past, but they are nevertheless taking all the straight business paper offering.

Commercial.

Receipts of flour and grain for the week ending to-day compared with the corresponding week in 1859 are as follows:

Corn, bus	151	Rye, bus	17

The wheat market to-day opened at yesterday's figures, No. 1 selling on the track at $1, Club at $1,03, Extra at $1,04; but after the receipt of the steamer's news reporting flour 6d. lower, and wheat dull in Liverpool, the market became very dull, and there were no buyers for No. 1 outside of 99c. We heard of no transactions at the reduced offers. Flour also partook of the dull feeling, and the only sale we heard of was 95 bbls of Spring Extra,—a very good country brand—at $4,50. There was not much of anything done in coarse grains. Oats nominal at 31@35c. Shelled corn 55@56c. Rye 59@62c, with a small sale at the latter figure. Dressed hogs firm at former quotations.

JUNIUS JUDSON,

PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF

JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1859. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1851. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 5th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperture necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR

FROM

THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, ensuing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiary adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,

(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect "—C. Fisher, M. D. Lynville, Pa.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Maris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. * * Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,

IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is knawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains.—Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ARE YOU SICK?

Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the Headache, Heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because the stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken.—They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
